

Supergroup 8 – Northern Ireland Countryside (1.0% of the UK population)

The members of this supergroup are located in western Northern Ireland. This supergroup comprises of only one group, which is also a subgroup. In this supergroup:

The variables with a proportion far below the national average¹ are:

- People who identify themselves as Indian, Pakistani, Bangladeshi or Other Asian
- People who identify themselves as Black African, Black Caribbean or Other Black
- People who are separated, widowed or divorced
- Pensioners who live alone
- Households with two adults and no dependent children
- People who live in flats
- People who take public transport to work
- Women who work part-time.

The variables with a proportion close to the national average² are:

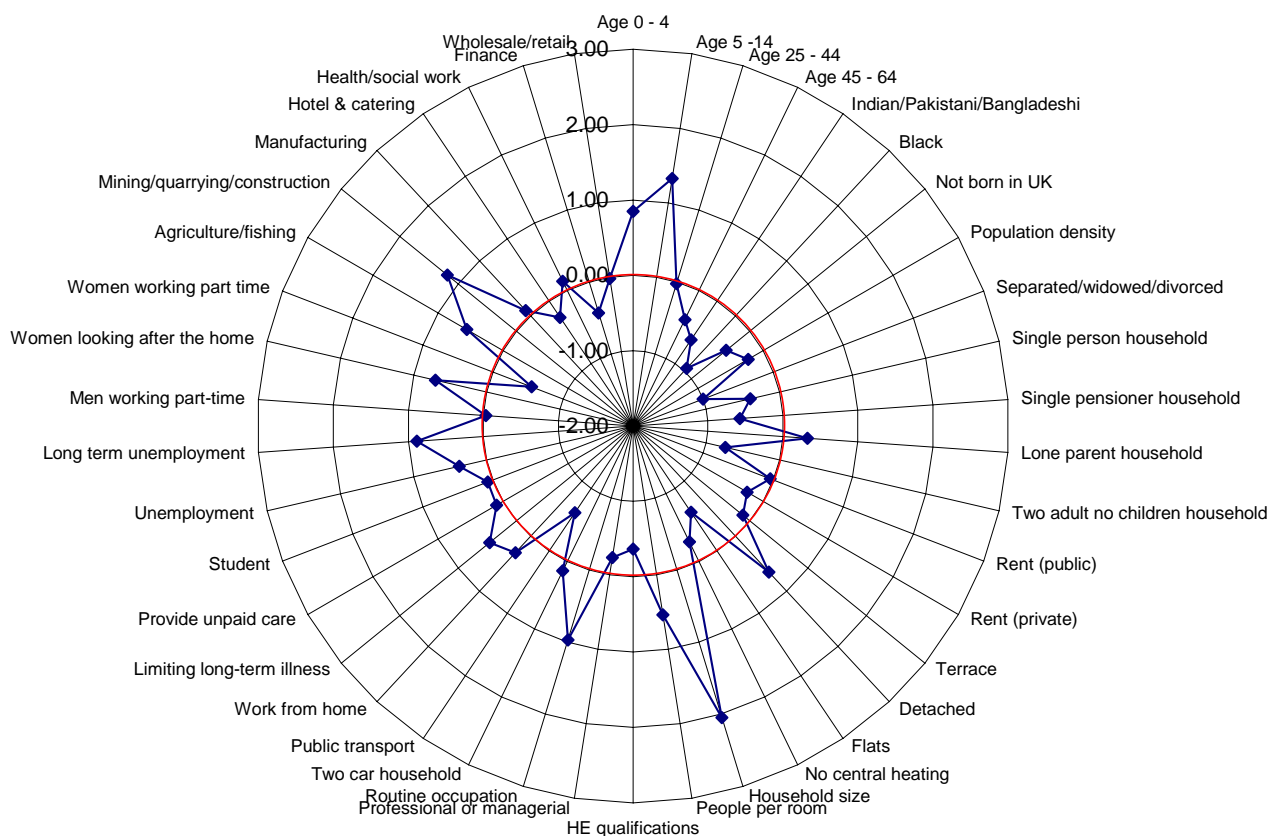

- People aged between 25 and 44
- People who rent their accommodation from the public sector
- Men who work part-time
- People who work in wholesale or retail.

The variables with a proportion far above the national average³ are:

- Children aged four or under
- People aged between five and 14
- People who live in a detached house
- Average household size
- Average number of people per room
- People who work in a routine occupation
- People who are long-term unemployed
- Women who look after their home or family
- People who work in agriculture
- People who work in mining, quarrying or construction.

Northern Ireland Countryside

Range-standardised difference from the UK mean. Positive values show an above average level of the population and negative values show a below average level of the population

1. For a variable to be 'far below average' it must have a difference of more than 0.5 below the UK mean.
2. For a variable to be 'close to the average' it must have a difference of less than 0.05 above or below the UK mean.
3. For a variable to be 'far above average' it must have a difference of more than 0.5 above the UK mean.

Group 8.13 – Northern Ireland Countryside (1.0% of the UK population)

The members of this group are located in western Northern Ireland. In this group:

The variables with a proportion far below the national average¹ are:

- People who identify themselves as Indian, Pakistani, Bangladeshi or Other Asian
- People who identify themselves as Black African, Black Caribbean or Other Black
- People who are separated, widowed or divorced
- Pensioners who live alone
- Households with two adults and no dependent children
- People who live in flats
- People who take public transport to work
- Women who work part-time.

The variables with a proportion close to the national average² are:

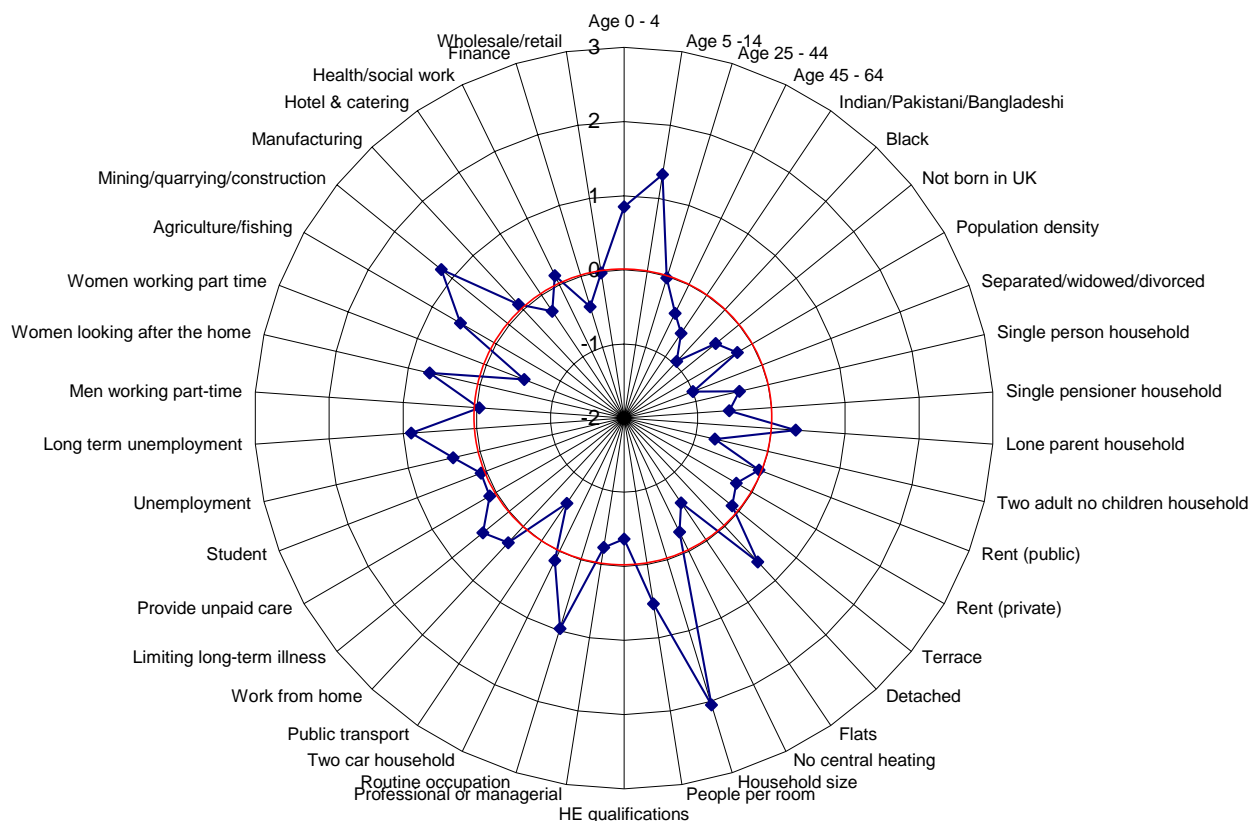

- People aged between 25 and 44
- People who rent their accommodation from the public sector
- Men who work part-time
- People who work in wholesale or retail.

The variables with a proportion far above the national average³ are:

- Children aged four or under
- People aged between five and 14
- People who live in a detached house
- Average household size
- Average number of people per room
- People who work in a routine occupation
- People who are long-term unemployed
- Women who look after their home or family
- People who work in agriculture
- People who work in mining, quarrying or construction.

Northern Ireland Countryside

Range-standardised difference from the UK mean. Positive values show an above average level of the population and negative values show a below average level of the population

1. For a variable to be 'far below average' it must have a difference of more than 0.5 below the UK mean.
2. For a variable to be 'close to the average' it must have a difference of less than 0.05 above or below the UK mean.
3. For a variable to be 'far above average' it must have a difference of more than 0.5 above the UK mean.

Subgroup 8.13.24 – Northern Ireland Countryside - A (1.0% of the UK population)

The members of this subgroup are located in western Northern Ireland. In this subgroup:

The variables with a proportion far below the national average¹ are:

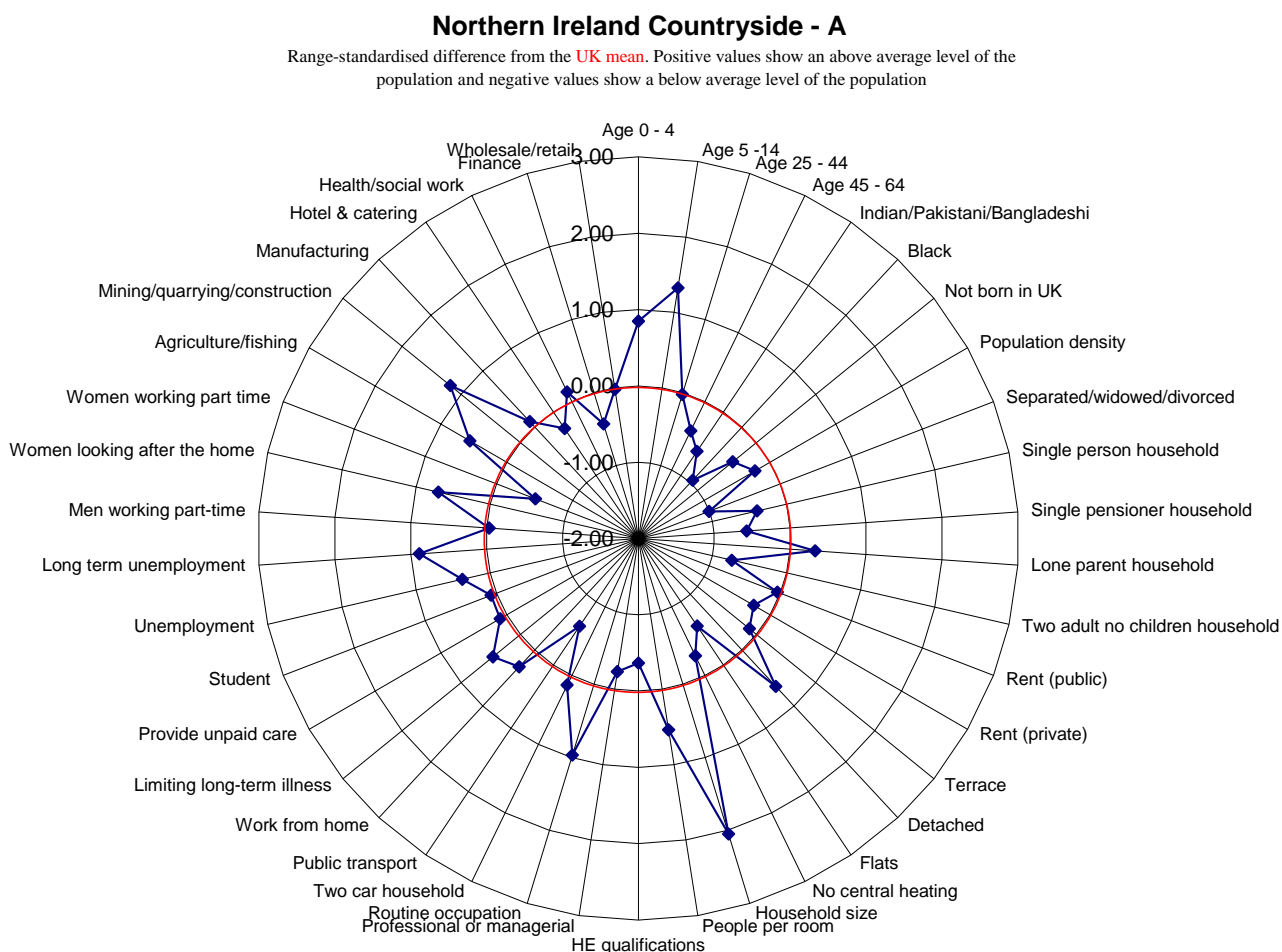

- People who identify themselves as Indian, Pakistani, Bangladeshi or Other Asian
- People who identify themselves as Black African, Black Caribbean or Other Black
- People who are separated, widowed or divorced
- Pensioners who live alone
- Households with two adults and no dependent children
- People who live in flats
- People who take public transport to work
- Women who work part-time.

The variables with a proportion close to the national average² are:

- People aged between 25 and 44
- People who rent their accommodation from the public sector
- Men who work part-time
- People who work in wholesale or retail.

The variables with a proportion far above the national average³ are:

- Children aged four or under
- People aged between five and 14
- People who live in a detached house
- Average household size
- Average number of people per room
- People who work in a routine occupation
- People who are long-term unemployed
- Women who look after their home or family
- People who work in agriculture
- People who work in mining, quarrying or construction.

1. For a variable to be 'far below average' it must have a difference of more than 0.5 below the UK mean.
2. For a variable to be 'close to the average' it must have a difference of less than 0.05 above or below the UK mean.
3. For a variable to be 'far above average' it must have a difference of more than 0.5 above the UK mean.