

Agglomeration schedule for local authority classification

Optimal levels can be identified on the basis of where there is a natural levelling off in the slope of the line